Award-Winning, Luxury Anne Arundel County Hotel Undergoing Dynamic Renovations to Lobby and Meeting Space, Offering Guests a Connection Between the Area's History and Modern Technology

The Hotel at Arundel Preserve to offer leisure, meeting and wedding guests a luxury experience infused with the vitality of nature

HANOVER, Md. (November 9, 2023) – The Hotel at the Arundel Preserve (7795 Arundel Mills Boulevard, Hanover) is beginning renovations of the property's 10,000 square foot lobby and 15,000 square feet space encompassing nine meeting rooms and pre-function spaces. The redesign will tie the vibrant history of the Hanover area with modern technology to give guests a luxurious, relaxing and invigorating stay.

"This renovation is a further commitment to our guests, visitors and the community," according to April Richmond, general manager at The Hotel at Arundel Preserve. "The enhancements will reenergize our spaces and provide our wedding, meeting and other guests with a refreshed and contemporary look while being respectful to the tremendous architecture of the hotel."

The Hotel at Arundel Preserve was built in 2011 and is 7.5 miles from Baltimore/Washington International Airport. The renovation is the first in the history of the hotel. It will invigorate the lobby area, creating an improved flow, additional seating groupings and a warm, inviting environment. The improvements to the meeting spaces bring new, comfortable seating options in pre-function areas, lighting and furnishings. Additionally, all spaces will be outfitted with new finishes.

"As a LEED Silver-Certified Hotel, bringing natural elements into the hotel's design complements our commitment to being an eco-friendly, environmentally conscious property," said Richmond. "Water will be subtly incorporated into the new design, artistic LED light fixtures will mimic natural elements such as wood and water, and amorphic, refined finishes will connect to the history of Anne Arundel County, which has been a home to summer resorts since the 1880's."

During renovations, the hotel will remain open with very limited, if any, impact to guests and no impact to the hotel's two dynamic restaurants, Grillfire and Anejo Rose. The property will be unable to host meetings and events between December 17 - February 29, but is booking for March 1 forward and is excited about the interest and increase in demand.

The Hotel at Arundel Preserve is owned and operated by Southern Management Companies and was recently named one of Convention South's 2023 Readers' Choice Winners for excellents in meetings and events. Elementum Interiors of Columbia, S.C., designed the renovation, and First Finish, Inc. of Columbia, Md. will complete the renovation. The renovation starts Dec. 1 and is scheduled to be completed by February 29, 2024.
